PERSONAL.

W. J. Lewis has returned from his southern trip.

Thomas Lynch, of Wilkes-Barre, visited this city yesterday.

Lieutenant Governor L. A. Waters is on a business visit to Philadelphia.

F. B. Hartman, of Bloomsburg, registered at the Wyoming yesterday.

Major Hardwell, ex-postmaster at Tunkhannock, was in the city yesterday.

Levi W. Langard Joseph P. Burns, of Wilkes-Barre, were in the city yesterday.

Lieutenant R. J. McCandless, of Montrose, who was the guest of Adjutant Miller, at the Westminister, returned home last evening.

Dr. J. E. Price delivered a very interesting address before the students of Wood's Business College yesterday afternoon.

The doctor is at home with young people and he mingled sentiment and pathos with wit and humor in such a unique manner as to not only provoke mirth and laughter, but to engage them in the more sober phases of life's realities.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

The attraction at the Frothingham theatre next Monday evening will be the new Docketster's minstrel, an organization that is deservedly popular with the theatre goers of Scranton.

Mr. Docketster has not visited Scranton for over a year, and the audience that will greet him Monday night will no doubt be a large one.

With Mr. Docketster will appear many minstrel entertainers well known and popular in Scranton.

Among the number will be Frank Dalton, George Powers, John C. Huntington, Dave Ivy, Blackson and Burns, Symonds, Hughes and Bauman and numerous other fan makers.

The sale of seats for the minstrel will open this morning at 9 o'clock at Powell's music store.

On the evening of the performances seats will be sold at a temporary box office that is being built in the lobby of the theatre.

Thomas E. This Next Week.

The management of the Academy of Music will present a week of comedy next week for the approval of the patrons.

At week Thomas E. This and his company will hold the boards for the entire week in a strong repertoire of comedy dramas with many sensational features.

Mr. Shea's company is a first class one and contains many clever people. Songs and dances of particular interest will be interspersed throughout each play.

This is the second annual appearance of Mr. Shea and his company in this city, and this engagement will, no doubt, prove very successful.

"Escaped from Sing Sing," will be the bill for Monday evening.

The prices are 10, 20 and 30 cents.

Seats will open this morning at the Academy box office for the entire week.

Installation of Officers.

The chiefs of Deacon tribe, No. 230, Improved Order of Red Men, were installed at evening by Grand District Deputy and Sachem W. D. Morgan, as follows: Sachem, Charles Lewis; sachem, Farrington; senior sagamore, J. W. Kambeck; junior sagamore, W. S. Bartlett; chief of council, W. L. Grant; assistant chief of council, W. C. Scott; keeper of wampum, W. V. Vanner; representative to grand council, J. H. Elmer. After installation, a supper was served.

The installation was presented to by James Levin and J. W. Warner, the presentation being made by the installing chief.

FARRIS just returned from New York with a fine lot of carpets, rugs and mats. 304 Penn avenue.

NEWS OF WEST SIDE

City Engineer Phillips Congratulated on His Re-Election.

FRIENDS ASSEMBLE AT HIS HOME

Music and Song and Mirth-Making While Away the Hours of Early Night—Mrs. Margaret Connors Buried—Mr. and Mrs. Harris Tendered a Party—Red Men to Occupy a New Home.

(The West Side office of the SCRANTON TRIBUNE is located at 140 Jackson street, where subscriptions, advertisements and communications will receive prompt attention.)

A large number of persons gathered at the home of Joseph P. Phillips, at the corner of Swatland street and Lincoln avenue last evening, and tendered him an enjoyable surprise in celebration of his recent re-election as city engineer. The house was brilliantly illuminated and potted plants were tastefully arranged throughout the rooms. The following members of the old Continental Club were present and rendered selections, interspersed with songs and dances. Prof. W. W. Evans, leader; Richard H. Williams, president; David H. Hughes, Henry S. Morgan, William E. Reese, John H. Kelly, Levi Morris, Thomas Abram, David Stephens, R. R. Hughes, Thomas Jones, Samuel Davis, Robert D. Thomas and Richard Thomas (Llew. Herbert). The guests began to assemble at about 8:30 o'clock and were received in the parlor by Mrs. Phillips and daughters. Members of the Club were seated in the parlor and the evening was spent in the most pleasant manner. A duet entitled the "Two Sailors," was sung by William Evans and Thomas A. Harris in a creditable manner. A solo, "Hard Times," rendered by Professor W. W. Evans, with a chorus by the Gleec won great applause. Miss Norma Williams, a young lady of talent, was pianist of the evening. The guests congratulated Mr. Phillips on his re-election, and many kind and cheerful words were spoken. Among those present, besides those previously mentioned, were Mr. and Mrs. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Robert, Mr. and Mrs. Evan H. Evans, Mrs. Abrams, Mrs. Mayo, Mrs. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Colby, Mr. and Mrs. Cook and Mrs. Lavelle, of Wilkes-Barre, and the Misses Minnie Hughes, Norma Williams, Myrtle Colby and Patrick Crossin. The following members of the city engineer's corps were also present: Messrs. Moir, P. W. Costello, Patrick Cole, Edwin B. Sherwood and Dominick Hasty. Refreshments were served at midnight.

A Pleasant Party. A party was tendered Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Harris at her home, corner of Swatland street and Evans court, Tuesday evening. The members of the Ladies' Aid society, of the Plymouth church, presided. Most of the evening was spent in the most pleasant manner. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Robert, Mr. and Mrs. Evan H. Evans, Mrs. Abrams, Mrs. Mayo, Mrs. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Colby, Mr. and Mrs. Cook and Mrs. Lavelle, of Wilkes-Barre, and the Misses Minnie Hughes, Norma Williams, Myrtle Colby and Patrick Crossin. The following members of the city engineer's corps were also present: Messrs. Moir, P. W. Costello, Patrick Cole, Edwin B. Sherwood and Dominick Hasty. Refreshments were served at midnight.

Mrs. Connors Buried. The funeral of Mrs. Margaret Connors of North Bromley avenue, occurred yesterday morning. A solemn and high mass of requiem was celebrated in St. Patrick's church by Rev. Father McNally. The ceremonies were attended by a large audience. The floral offerings were many and of exquisite designs. The pall bearers were James Tobin, John Monagle, Thomas McCormack, John Smith, Henry Durkin and James Gleason.

Will Occupy Their New Home. Bald Eagle lodge No. 102, and Navajo tribe No. 105, Improved Order of Red Men, will occupy their new furnished quarters over Jenkins' drug store on Friday evening, April 20. Speeches will be made by prominent Red Men from Binghamton, Wilkes-Barre and Elmira and a musical programme rendered. The affair will be closed with a supper.

News Notes and Personal. The funeral of the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Abbot, of North Bromley avenue, will occur this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Interment will be made in the Washburn street cemetery.

Miss Alice Weeks, of North Hyde Park avenue, is making an extended visit with her uncle, Hon. T. P. Davies, of West Virginia.

Miss Jessie Naumann, of North Sumner avenue, returned home yesterday from a two weeks' visit with friends in Wilkes-Barre.

Ladies' branch of St. Patrick's Irish Catholic Benevolent union will give an entertainment on Sunday evening.

Henry Woodhouse, of Clark's Summit, was on this side yesterday.

Mr. Watkins, of North Sumner avenue, is making extensive improvements on his property.

The funeral of the two-year-old child of John Burke, of North Main avenue, will take place today.

The Women's Guild of St. David's Episcopal Church, held a most pleasant social last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Thayer, on South Main avenue. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Edward Morgan, of Wilkes-Barre, were guests of friends on this side yesterday.

COST OF STREET IMPROVEMENTS. City Engineer Phillips gives estimates on them.

City Engineer Phillips has prepared estimates of the cost of making certain street improvements provided for in recent ordinances passed by council. To lay the sidewalk on Lackawanna avenue from the Delaware Lackawanna and Western railroad to North Main avenue in the fourteenth ward, will require an expenditure of $93,23, according to the estimate of the city engineer.

The walks to be laid on the west side of Ninth and Robinson streets from Lackawanna avenue to Jackson street are estimated to cost $901.75, and on the east and west sides of Main avenue from Jackson to Pettibone, $9,465.68.

LOWER HOUSE AT WORK

Proceedings of Last Night's Session of Common Council.

TWENTY THOUSAND FOR VIADUCT

Vice President Clark of the Traction Company and W. F. Hallstead of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Offer $10,000 Each—Bond Ordinance Ordered Printed—Resolutions Concurred in.

Fourteen common councilmen answered the roll call at last night's meeting: Schadt, Robathan, Norton, Grier, Robinson, Regan, Moir, McLean, Thomas, Wenzel, Novalis, Noons, Goldrey and Hickey.

After the minutes of the last meeting had been read and approved, Chairman Novalis stated that before any further business was in order the names of the different committeemen appointed for the ensuing year would be read. The list is as follows:

COMMITTEES NAMED
Auditing Committee—Hickey, Battle, Sweeney, Norton, Regan, Howe, Schadt, McLean.
Finance—Grier, Norton, Thomas, Wenzel, Howe.
Judiciary—Hickey, Battle, Moir, Noons, Goldrey.
Estimates—Noons, Schadt, Golden, Robinson, Robinson.
Streets and Bridges—Sweeney, Battle, Howe, Regan, Davis.
Sewers and Drains—McLean, Schadt, Wenzel, Norton, Thomas.
Light and Water—Regan, Noons, Williams, Golden, Moir.
Fire Department—Schadt, Robinson, Morris, Hickey, Robathan.
Police—Norton, McLean, Thomas, Moir, Golden.
Printing—Howe, Norton, Williams, Noons, Sweeney.
Public Buildings—Battle, Sweeney, Goldrey, Schadt, Thomas.
Liquors—Robinson, McLean, Howe, Schadt, Robinson.
Taxes—Golden, Hickey, Morris, Grier, Williams.
Roses—Robathan, Norton, Davis, Battle, Grier.
Laws and Ordinances—Wenzel, Robinson, Goldrey, Noons, Davies.
Sanitary—Williams, Sweeney, Morris, Battle, Regan.
Licensing—Goldrey, Hickey, Howe, Robinson, Robathan.
Collector's Accounts—Thomas, Moir, Grier, Wenzel, Norton.
Treasurer's Accounts—Moir, Sweeney, Goldrey, Noons, Davies.
Manufactures—Moir, McLean, Thomas, Grier, Robathan.
Parks—Davies, Hickey, Williams, Robinson, Battle.
Pavements—Golden, Norton, Howe, Wenzel, Regan.

Two communications were read, one from C. M. Clark of Philadelphia, vice president of the Scranton Traction company, and the other from General Manager W. F. Hallstead, of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad company. Vice President Clark stated that the Traction company would pay $2,000 when the viaduct is completed and ready for cars to run on it, and $2,000 yearly thereafter for four years.

Mr. Hallstead's proposition simply stated that President Nixon authorized him to make a donation of $10,000. Mr. Robathan moved to refer the communications to a special committee of five, three from the upper branch and two from the common, to set in the premises in conjunction with the mayor and city council. The amendment by Mr. McLean to have the matter referred to the railroad committee was lost and the original motion prevailed. The chair appointed Messrs. Robathan and Hickey to serve on the committee.

BRIDGE AND LOAN ORDINANCE.

Mr. Moir, taking up the question of building the city for the erection of bridges, stated the law in reference to the publication of the ordinance in the papers of the city.

A motion was made to have the ordinance printed in the SCRANTON TRIBUNE and Scranton Republican. Mr. Grier, of the Third ward, offered an amendment inserting the word "Times" instead of "Tribune." He gave no valid reason nor offered no information in connection with his amendment; and finally consented to accept the amendment of adding the Scranton Times to the list, since the law allowed publication in more than two papers.

The ordinance is known by the title Bridge and Loan ordinance, and provides for the issuing of bonds to the amount of $250,000, in denominations of $1,000 each, bearing not more than 4 per cent interest.

The first series is from Nov 1 to 30 inclusive and matures in 1904; the second, from 31 to 140, matures in 1909; the third, 141 to 191, matures in 1914; the last, from 192 to 250, will be cancelled in 1919.

A batch of concurrent resolutions were read and concurred in.

WEDDED IN PHILADELPHIA.

Joseph S. Mack, of This Place, Marries a Quaker City Lady.

Joseph S. Mack, of this city, was married to Miss Carrie L. daughter of Michael Mack, a Market street, Philadelphia, shop merchant, at 8 o'clock last evening.

The wedding service took place at the Chestnut Street Presbyterian church, and was performed by the Rev. Mr. Reinhold, a relative of the family, assisted by the pastor. After the ceremony the party returned to the home of the bride, on Market street.

After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Mack left on a brief honeymoon, including New York and vicinity. After returning to Scranton, they will be at home to their friends at 331 Palm street.

Mr. Mack is a book-keeper for the Sawmolt Silk Manufacturing company and is deservedly popular with employers and employees alike. Their numerous friends and acquaintances join in wishing them a safe and peaceful journey on the sea of marital felicity.

SONG RECITAL AND ADDRESS.

John Howard Entertains and Instructs a Music Loving Audience.

The song recital and address given at Powell & Co's piano warehouse last evening by John Howard, of New York, proved highly entertaining to the music lovers present.

The musical part of the programme consisted of a number of selections which Mr. Howard rendered in an artistic manner. He has a pleasing voice and seems to sing without any striving after effect.

The address consisted of a brief history of Mr. Howard's experiences in true, physiological method of teaching artistic singing, together with an explanation of the Howard voice method.

LOVE LAUGHS AT LOCKSMITHS

William Markins and Mary Gallagher Married Against the Wishes of the Bride's Parents—Stopping on Birney Avenue Spending Their Honeymoon—Suit in Equity Against Taylor Borough—Personal Mention and Shorter Paragraphs.

William Markins and Miss Mary Gallagher, of Pockville, left home and were married secretly, and are now spending their honeymoon at the residence of Richard Callery on Birney avenue, in the Twentieth ward. Markins is about 24 years old, and his bride is not over 19. His parents live in Pittston borough, but he is employed by a shirt and necktie maker, Thomas Smallcomb. The nature of his employment is such as to find him here today and away tomorrow. For the past six months he was employed at Pockville, and boarded at the hotel of Michael Gallagher. There he fell in love with the landlady's daughter, and she reciprocated the flame.

When the parents of the girl found out the fact Markins was banished from the house, and his lady love kept under guard. Last Sunday night, however, after the Gallagher family had retired for the night, Mary left the house and proceeded to an apartment where her trysting lover met her. They came to this city and registered at a hotel in the city under assumed names. Monday morning they journeyed to the court house and obtained a marriage license.

According to the groom's statement to a Tribune reporter, they took the street car and went to Olyphant, where Rev. P. J. Murphy, of that place, made them man and wife. After the ceremony the couple returned to Scranton and have since been boarding at Mr. Callery's. About two years ago Markins worked in the National shirt in a rock tunnel, and lived with Callery.

Yesterday the elopers wrote a note to the girl's parents, telling of their marriage and asking forgiveness. They intended to wait a reasonable time for an answer before taking further steps.

Want Taylor to Pay Its Share. The supervisors of Lackawanna township, Martin P. Judice and Michael Gibbons, through their attorney, Cornelius Conneely, have filed a bill in equity in the court of common pleas, asking an adjustment of the indebtedness of Lackawanna township, so as to have the recently constructed borough of Taylor pay its proportionate share of the outstanding account. The particulars set forth in the bill of complaint state that Taylor borough was, prior to Nov. 23, 1893, a part of Lackawanna township, and the territory included within the borough limits certain debts contracted, a portion of which still remain uncanceled. The prayer of the petitioner asks that an accounting be made, whereas a proper part of the outstanding obligations be met by the corporate borough of Taylor. The taxpayers of Lackawanna township will await the result of these proceedings with interest.

THE COMING CHAMPION.

The South Side has reason to come to the front once more and claim credit for the showing made by one of its citizens in his chosen line. The individual is James Judge, of the Excelsior Athletic club. At the recent tournament of that club held on the second night, fought with John Walsh, of the Lexington Athletic club, of New York, and knocked him out. Walsh had fought, before coming in contact with Judge, seventeen battles and won every one of them, and was considered a coming amateur champion of the United States in the 135-pound class. This is equal to saying that Judge, who defeated Walsh so easily the other night, may be expected to become champion shortly. He will fight a battle in a month, which will determine the championship.

Personal. Oliver Burke, of Meadow avenue, has altogether recovered from the recent scourge of typhus which he suffered.

William Fink, of Remington avenue, is able to go to work after being laid up some time with an amputated thumb.

Rev. J. W. Nicholson, of Binghamton, formerly pastor of the Central Avenue Methodist Episcopal church, is the guest of his sister, Mrs. J. C. Carr, of Elm street, while attending the Wyoming conference.

Shorter Paragraphs. Michael J. Coyne, of Locust street, who is engaged to a singer and comedian, will take part in an entertainment on April 23 in Pittman Music hall for the benefit of the Blessed Virgin's Sodality of St. John's church of that place. He will sing several songs of his own composition, and also render two vaudeville solos, imitating a mocking bird and canary almost perfectly.

Scranton's Business Interests. The TRIBUNE will soon publish a carefully compiled and classified list of the leading wholesale, banking, manufacturing and professional interests of Scranton and vicinity. The edition will be bound in book form, beautifully illustrated with photographic views of our public buildings, churches, blocks, streets, together with portraits of leading citizens. No similar work has ever given an equal representation of Scranton's many industries. It will be an invaluable exposition of our business resources. Sent to persons outside the city, copies of this handsome work will attract much attention and be an unequalled advertisement of the city. The circulation is on a plan that cannot fail of good results to those concerned as well as the city at large. Representatives of THE TRIBUNE will call upon those whose names are desired in this edition and explain its nature more fully.

Those desiring views of their residences in the edition will please take notice at the office.

DIED. O'BOYLE—In Orchard, Thursday morning, April 12, James O'Boyle, mother of J. J. O'Boyle and Mrs. J. C. McAndrews, of Vine street, Scranton, aged about 78 years. Funeral from family residence, Carbonate, Saturday, April 14, at 9:30 A. M. High requiem at Church of St. Rose of Lima.

PECK—On the 12th inst. Clara A. wife of M. B. Peck. Funeral notice on Saturday. Binghamton papers please copy.

IT IS A SPLENDID SHOWING.

Work Accomplished By the Second Presbyterian Church.

The Second Presbyterian church held its annual meeting last evening and the exercises were unusually interesting. The year just closed has been the most prosperous in the history of this busy church. They report a larger number than ever in the Sunday schools, 113 additions to the church, eighty-eight on profession of faith and twenty-five by letter, $1,108 for foreign missions and $7,000 for home missions and $3,570 for other benevolent purposes, and $11,441 for congregational uses amounting in all for the year just closing to $24,119.

The church holds with her two missions sixteen services a week and is working all these lines with vigor and enthusiasm.

The Washburn-Crosby company are giving daily instruction in that most delicate art—making good bread—by a thoroughly competent teacher at the Scranton Cash Store. No housewife can afford to miss this opportunity.

P. J. JOHNSON, practical house and sign painter has removed from court house square to 236 Spruce street, opposite Tribune office.

HARRIS just returned from New York with a fine lot of carpets, rugs and mats. 304 Penn avenue.
